
The fixed-u scan approaches½ by design; evidence comes from response alignment, not point coordinates.
Fixed ε/π=.60 controls included. Initial-state dependence remains; this is not an accepted phase boundary.